THE POPULAR CRAZE OF '95.

Some very, very creepy Crepons here, others just slightly so, with many go-between stages, ranging from the somewhat neat, yet distinctly marked "rock" Grepons, to those with bold, broad, and wave-like protuberances.

Crepons are here in solid colors, such as Mocha, Reseda, Rose-tan, Navy, Myrtle, dark Bleuet and Black-much the Grepons here in two-toned effects, such as Pink, Bleuet, Red, and Tan deftly blended with Black. In all silk, all wool, and silk and wool combined.

Crepons as cheap as are made-as fine as are sold anywhere-for the multitude or the millionaire.

Crepons in separate and exclusive pattern lengths, as well as in solid chunks, containing many yards. Fifty styles if there's one.

Owing to scarcity and phenomenal demand, prices on many lines have been advanced in New York City-but not here.

Our buyer reports that some of the handsomest styles which he purchased while in New York City last week, were stolen from his stack not less than three times; but they're safely here now. Come at once for first pick from the finest line of Crepons in Wheeling. There's danger

Lecture by Dr. Sperry.

Lecture by Dr. Sperry.

Dr. Lyman B. Sperry will give his popular lecture on "Gumption and Grit" at the Young Men's Christian Association next Tuesday evening. Dr. Sperry has been before the public as a professional popular lecturer only about four years, but in that time his reputation has spread from the Atlantic to the Pacific. This season he has had applications for more lectures than it was possible for him to give. His addresses are not simply "entertainment." They are not of the light, flowery or sensational sort. He always discusses living and important matters. But, while serious, he is anything but sad, dull or rious, he is anything but sad, dull or tediously scientific.

Brooke county grand jury, in session at Wellsburg yesterday, returned the following indictments:
James B. Yates, robbing freight cars; William Blankenson and Charles Brady, cutting with intent to kill; Yates, Blankenson and Brady, robbing sheriff's office; George Glass, forgery; Birdie McFadden, adultery; John Miller, assault.

'PROF." MONTEFIORE.

The "Phenomenal Wonder" Proves tobe a Rank Fraud.

SOMETHING ABOUT HIS RECORD.

He Used Another Name and Gave Fictitions Addresses in Chicago. Wheeling Creditors Find him out in Time to Avoid Loss-A Zanesville Claimant Hore,

When a man advertises as, "Prof." Monteflore did when he came here, that he could cure any disease and diagnose any case by simply looking at the patient, it takes monumental credulity to accept his claim as anything but a hugo joke, yet not a few people accepted the so-called "Professor" in earnest, and gave him good money to be humbugged.

"Monteflore's" advertisements in the daily papers have become familiar to the public. He contracted to spend large sums with all the newspapers, but had not incurred a very great liability when his career here sufferd an eclipse. The publishers of the INTEL-LIGENCER, having their suspicions aroused by his methods, made inquiries of people in Chicago in a position to secure information, and on Monday received a response, substantially as follows:

"There is no such name in the Chiwith the control of t

pecial Disputch to the Intelligencer.

Zanesville, O., March 5.—"Professor Monteflore," now at the McLure house, whose advertisement appeared in both whose advertisement appeared in both Sunday papers as a wonderful "cure all" doctor, is a fraud and robs those who entrust money to him. His plan is to promise a cure in three or four days, at which time he is gone for parts unknown. Not satisfied with robbing Zanesville citizens, he tried to skip his board at the Kirk house, was stopped at the train and made to settle. Writehim un and protect the good people of Wheeling. He owes all the papers here for advertising.

This report was verified last night when Mr. Richardson, representing the Zanesville Times-Recorder, came to Wheeling and swore out an attachment in Squite Gillespy's court for Monteflore

Wheeling and swore out an attachment in Squire Gillespy's court for Monteifore for $13, to cover an advertising bill. The papers were given to Detective W. B. Lukins, and when he presented them the "professor" settled at once. Of course the man's claims as to his curative powers, his skill as a fortune tellor and all that, deserve no more credence than the broken English mumblings of an ignorant old Gipsy woman. Nevertheless he has done some business with credulous people. Ilis methods are so peculiar that many some business with credulous people. Ilis methods are so peculiar that many people have suggested that there must be something wrong with his intellect. A young woman called on the professor and was told that a man owed her money. This being true, she thought it was miraculous that he should know it. He said he knew where the man was, and could bring him back to Wheeling in a week. But he must have $40 in cash or its equivalent in jewelry or other valuables first. The young woman had enough common sense to be suspicious, and she mon sense to be suspicious, and she offered to deposit the $40 with any honorable business man in Wheeling, to be given to the professor when he fulfilled his promise, but this offer was rejected. Monteflore must have the fulfilled his promise, but this offer was rejected. Monteflore must have the cash. Of course when the week was gone he would be gone too. The young woman, after consulting friends, declined to be victimized that way; but the question naturally suggests itself, how many poor, silly dupes have confided money to the man under similar circumstances? circumstances?

The laws do not seem to be adequate to meet a case of his kind. Anybody who has been swindled by him, however, should move promptly if they want to recover any part of their money.

A severe rhoumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not litt anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted.
